MFMCP center opens

The Mutual Fund Management Company of the Philippines (MFMCP) recently opened its first Investor Relations Center on Sen. G. Puyat Avenue, formerly Buendia, Makati City. Located at the ground floor of the Morning Star Center, interested investors can visit the center for investment inquiries and consultations.

"The welfare of our investors is very important to us. We see to it that we provide them the right information on the different funds we manage," MFMCP president Phillip Hagedorn, said. MFMCP's new center also gives investors analysis and advice on their investments, documentation of investments or redemption, and reporting of accounts.
